Sustainable Men's Hats by Urban Edge
These stylish and comfortable hats are individually crafted and designed by New York-based designer, Evan Knapp, with the planet in mind. Using renewable materials like bamboo fibers and organic alpaca wool, Urban Edge provides a versatile fantastic look that is 100% guilt-free. Available at Barneys. urbanedgetd.com - $270

Stirlen Chi
Stirlen Chi introduces a new line of cleaning products for yoga mats and equipment. These products are nontoxic, biodegradable, environmentally friendly, are not tested on animals. They offer Mat Wash, Mat Refresher, and Mat Cleanser with no lingering scents. When used regularly, these cleansers will help extend the life of your yoga accessories. StirlenChi.com

Hemp Barbecue Apron
These aprons are made from a sustainable, naturally-dyed, hemp/cotton blend. Hemp is three times stronger than cotton and requires no pesticides to grow. They are hand-woven in a village producer cooperative, specializing in traditional patterns and techniques. Your purchase helps to keep these crafts alive by funding equipment and training. Globalexchangestore.org - $29

UV Natural

Welcome to a new era of health-conscious sunscreen. UV Natural contains no harsh chemicals! These sunscreens provide SPF protection of 30 plus. They are formulated to be water and sweat resistant, and contain anti-aging and anti-oxidant oils. There are no added fragrances, and they have a three-year shelf life. There are several varieties including formulas for adults, athletes, golfers and babies. The infant sunscreen is so gentle that it can be applied to a baby under the age of 6 months.
